Dogtopia

nolapets As a working dog mom, I always feel guilty leaving my babies for hours at home. Yesterday, I didn't have to feel guilty! 😊 Bella got to spend the day @dogtopianola. I can't say enough good things! The staff was very friendly and the drop off/pick up process was very smooth. I downloaded the dogtopia app so I could stalk Bella 🐾 anytime throughout the day. 😊 She looked like she was having a blast especially when the staff brought out the bacon 🍖 flavor bubbles! The dogs loved it! 💜 Bella also got a 🛁 bath right before pick up time! She 🐾 looked so pretty and smelled wonderful! Not only did she have a great time but she was exhausted. She went straight to sleep
